

TeleClass: The Language for Success

When: Thursday, December 15th at 7:30 pm EST

Dial-in Number: 512.400.4012

Conference Code: 418704

Did you know that the way you are approaching people could be holding back your Young Living business?

Have you been saying words or expressions like this?

- "You're in for a treat"
- "A great business opportunity"
- "You would be perfect for this business"
- "You don't have to do any selling" (may be true but it plants selling in the prospect's mind)

Or using words like . . . "Awesome, fantastic, excited, opportunity, unbelievable", etc.

Meet Thomas Sarno, Professional Language Coach . . .

If you are ready to learn . . .

- How to find all your leads and prospects for free
- How to create interest and qualify people
- Language that will help you connect with people more effectively

Then this TeleClass is for you!!!

You are invited to attend a one hour TeleClass with Thomas Sarno. Thomas has coached hundreds of people to success by teaching them what to say and how to say it.

Some of the topics we will be covering are:

- Seven words you must use in your advertising messages to command attention

- An irresistible opening sentence for creating curiosity when bumping into people.
- Three questions that will tell you right away if the prospect is qualified or not.

Bring your note pad and pen. You will want to capture the "The Language for Success"
