

Here's a partial list of just some of the tax-deductible expenses that businesses legally and routinely write-off, and just some of the HOME-business expenses that YOU can legally and routinely write-off. [ IRS Code, § 280 A ]

Legal
Business
Deductions

Legal
HOME-Business
Deductions

×	Mortgage or Rent	×
×	Gas, Electric, Water and Sewer	×
×	Cleaning Crews to Dust, Vacuum and Empty the Trash	×
×	Computers, Copiers, Fax Machines and Telephones	×
×	Paper, Pens, Ink Cartridges and even Postage	×
×	Desks, Sofas, Coffee Tables and other Furniture	×
×	Painting, Wallpaper, Carpeting and other Repairs/Remodeling	×
×	Phones Bills, Cell-Phones, Pagers and Palm Pilots	×
×	Newspapers, Magazines, Books and On-line Media	×
×	Plane Fares, Hotel Costs, Meals & Rental Cars while Traveling	×
×	Lunches, Dinners, Ball Games, Theater Tickets & Health Clubs	×
×	Security Alarms, Hidden Cameras and Guard Dogs	×
×	Health, Life, Dental, Disability and Unemployment Insurance	×
×	Company Cars and even Boats	×
×	Gifts to Charity, Non-Profits, Libraries and Colleges	×
×	Contributions to Employee Retirement Plans	×
×	Grass Cutting, Landscaping, Snow Removal, Driveway Repair	×
×	Holiday Cards and Postage and Gifts	×

The two columns of deductions are identical!

Note: Be sure to check with your accountant to remain updated with current tax law.