Tips For Sharing

It can be tough to strike up a conversation with someone you don't know or even present a business opportunity to family, friends, coworkers, and neighbors. Here are some tips for sharing Young Living products and earning a double Start Living Bonus:

- When grocery shopping at your local health food store, strike up a conversation about the harmful chemicals in personal care and cleaning products. Mention how lucky you feel to have a natural alternative—you're sure to pique curiosity!
- Host a home gathering! There are limitless possibilities for home gatherings: essential oil gatherings, NingXia Red® parties, home spa get-togethers, even cooking clubs.
- It's hard to turn on the news or enter into a conversation without hearing about corporate bailouts or scandal. Next time you find yourself in one of these conversations, mention the hard work, ethics, and tight-knit corporate culture at Young Living.
- Feeling shy? Practice striking up a conversation! Approaching strangers can be nerve wracking. Practice makes perfect and the more comfortable you are, the more confident you'll be!
- Consider traveling with a pack of first aid oils when participating in outdoor activities. Treating fellow hikers or teammates with PanAway® might just lead to a valuable business-building opportunity.
- When getting active this summer, mix one ounce of NingXia Red in your water bottle. Whether at the gym or on a hike, it's a great conversation starter!
- Share the work Young Living has been doing in Ecuador with the Chongon School or here at home with the Urban Zen Foundation and Beth Israel Medical Center. Giving back is important to most people, and they'll be compelled to support a socially conscious company.

- Next time you overhear someone fantasizing about a summer vacation, share the 2010 Cruise Challenge! With improved qualifications making it easier than ever to qualify. Who wouldn't be interested?

And don't forget: whenever you enroll a new member with a premium Start Living Kit you can also earn 50 points towards the 2010 Cruise Challenge! What are you waiting for? Get out and share!
